Procedure
Collecting authorisations	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The Application to enrol in an NSW Government preschool (preschool enrolment form) collects parent / carer acceptance or refusal of authorisations and consent for the following circumstances: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ illness, accident and emergency treatment ○ transportation in a medical emergency ○ permission to publish (information about the child) ○ permission for the child to use online services (the internet) ○ consent to seek information from other organisations or government departments about the child based on information provided in Section A of the enrolment form related to learning and support needs, special needs, health conditions, required risk assessments and children's needs noted within the application, from other prior to school services, organisations or NSW Government departments. • Parents / carers are record in the preschool enrolment form nominees they authorise to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ collect their child from preschool (authorised collectors) ○ consent to medical treatment and authorise the administration of medication for their child ○ authorise the child being taken away from the preschool premises for an excursion. • The preschool enrolment form does not collect the following authorisations and they are collected separately, when applicable: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ application by an adult of sunscreen or insect repellent to a child ○ administration of medication ○ Families are encouraged to apply insect repellent that lasts for 6 hours to their child before starting preschool ○ Parents sign a note upon enrolment to use the general use sunscreen if their own sunscreen has run out or if they haven't supplied one yet
Communication and application	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Authorisation and authorised collector information is extracted from the enrolment forms. Staff photocopy out of children's enrolment of authorisations and refusals	forms collection information, so preschool educators can have a copy to refer to on the preschool premises. Parents who want to update this information will need to do so in person or via email to the school office, at which point office staff will photocopy the new version and send it down to the preschool. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Office staff collate all emergency contact information into a booklet each term and distribute this to the preschool. Preschool educators have access to URN through their DET portal, so they can refer to a digital copy of all enrolment information at any time. • Relieving and casual staff and volunteers are made aware of any authorisation refusals and each child's authorised collectors. Non-authorisations will be kept on file, communicated verbally to staff and recorded in the staff induction and casual folders. • All staff refer to this information to ensure any authorisation refusals are complied with and that a child only leaves the preschool in the care of a parent or one of their authorised collectors.

Changes to authorisations	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • A parent or carer may choose to change their authorisations or their child's authorised collectors. Preschool educators will direct them to the school's front office. They will change this on their preschool enrolment form, and the school office will make a photocopy of the new authorisation page and send it to the preschool. • If changes are notified: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ they are recorded in the preschool enrolment by the office staff ○ preschool records are updated by the office staff • preschool staff are told of the change. The office will make a photocopy of the new authorisation page and send it to the pigeon hole for the preschool staff to collect.
